

CURRICULUM VITAE
Mikhail Novikov, MD, PhD

US Citizen Place of Birth: Kiev, Ukraine

Education:

1993-1997 - MD - University of Kentucky, Medical College
1984-1988 - PhD - Specialty - Theory of Probability and Random Processes,
Institute of Mathematics,
Academy of Sciences of Ukraine.
1977 - 1982 - MS - Mathematics, Kiev State University

Postdoctoral Training:

2001-2003 - Fellow in Nephrology, Indiana University, Indianapolis
1997-2000 - Resident in Internal Medicine (PGY1-3), Mount Carmel Medical Center
(MCMC, Columbus, Ohio)

Professional Medical Experience:

09/01/2017 - Present – Nephrology And Hypertension Medical Associates, P.C.
07/01/2006 - 08/31/2017 - Partner in Center Ohio Nephrology Associates Inc
07/01/2003 - 07/01/2006 - Employed by Center Ohio Nephrology Associates Inc
2000 - 2001 - Critical Care Physician (in house) Full Time at MCMC
1999 - 2000 - Critical Care Physician (in house) Part Time at MCMC

Licensure:

South Carolina - MD51443
Georgia - 079275
Ohio - 35.075314

Certification:

2000 - American Board of Internal Medicine
2003 - American Board of Nephrology

Profession Societies:

2002 American Society of Nephrology
2003 Columbus Medical Associates

CURRICULUM VITAE
Mikhail Novikov, MD, PhD

References:

Brue Molitoris, MD Division Director
Pierre Dagher, MD Fellowship Director
Richard Hellman, MD Associate Professor of Clinical Medicine
Jesus Domiguez, MD Associates Professor of Clinical Medicine

Bibliography:

20 articles in peer reviewed Mathematical Journals in Russian Language, and one book published in USSR, "Semi-Markov repairable systems and queueing systems", Shtiintsa, Kishinev, USSR, 1991. 276 pp. ISBN: 5-376-0096-7.